Whereas, the Missouri House of Representatives is fully cognizant of the important role which the Boy Scouts of America organization plays in offering a well-rounded program of activities designed to prepare young men for the many diverse challenges of responsible citizenship; and

Whereas, Steven David Ulm of Dexter, Missouri, has been privileged to participate in such activities as a loyal, diligent, and industrious member of Troop 371, which will bestow upon him the rank of Eagle Scout during appropriate ceremonies on March 1, 2003, at First United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, Steven culminated eight years of Scouting endeavor with the successful completion of his required Eagle project that took him many hours to plan, organize, and carry out for the overall benefit of others by building a special playground for the Early Childhood Development program at Southwest Elementary School in Dexter; and

Whereas, the son of David and Linda Ulm, Steven always took the time and continually put forth the energy to perform his duties in the most efficient and effective manner possible and truly excelled while assuming various leadership positions; and
